

PDC July Newsletter

Welcome Back!

We have missed seeing our dancers at the studio so much! Thank you all from the bottom of our hearts for your cooperation in making this a smooth transition with all of our new guidelines. We felt that the week went very well, and we hope you and your dancer felt safe and comfortable at the studio.

Just a reminder that dancers should still come into class in dress code established at the beginning of the year. While a leotard and tights can be uncomfortable in the summer, the AC will run during all classes.

PS- Hamilton is now on Disney+!
